1 On page 3, beginning on line 32, after "Sec. 5." strike the
2 remainder of the section and insert "A limited service pregnancy
3 center is required to follow all applicable federal and state law
4 governing the collection, distribution, and timely disclosure of 5 health care information."

6

EFFECT: Deletes a requirement that limited service pregnancy centers not disclose health care information without a service recipient's written authorization, requirements related to providing the results of a pregnancy test, and requirements related to making available or providing the service recipient's health care information on request.

Adds that a center must follow all applicable federal and state law governing the collection, distribution, and timely disclosure of health care information.
